Clear Space Near Houses To Stop Fires

The housing authority echoed the local fire department this week in its request for residents' cooperation in chopping down grass growing up around the houses here.

In order to prevent a summer fire hazard, it is imperative that the dry grass should all be eliminated before July.

Merritt Webster, housing authority executive director, said this week they are attempting to get a big mower in to clean up areas between the houses.

However, in order to successfully combat the menace of summer grass fires, the grass must be eliminated from space near the house, which the mower is unable to reach.

As a safety measure, all residents are being asked to devote a few hours of their day off to prevent the possibility of serious conflagrations this summer.

False Alarm Calls Out Our Firemen Sunday

It was a false alarm last Sunday, when the Marin City Fire Department responded to a call during the Honor Roll dedication ceremony.

Chief Rolf Bremer said a woman reported a grass fire by House 303, but when the firemen arrived there was no sign of a blaze.

Director Away

Judge Guy A. Ciocca, executive director of this housing project, has been in Washington, D. C., this week attending a Federal Public Housing Authority conference. He is expected back here next Monday.

Armed Forces Honor Roll Is Dedicated

At the very hour when American troops were entering Rome and just 48 hours before the armed forces of the United Nations stormed ashore on the beaches of France, more than 500 residents of Marin City gathered last Sunday afternoon to dedicate an honor roll of the community's men and women who have gone to war.

City Council Meets Sunday At The Center

The Marin City Council meets this Sunday, June 11, in the Community House lounge.

Every resident of Marin City is invited to attend, and to participate in the Good of Marin Hour, when the meeting is thrown open for advice and suggestions from members of the audience.

Cafeteria to Open Here Saturday

Marin City's new and only eating place, the Victory Cafeteria, opens its door for the first time this Saturday at 5 p.m. to provide residents with complete fountain, breakfast, lunch and dinner service.

The establishment plans to open at 7 a.m. and remain open until 1 a.m. for homecoming swing shifters.

Fountain hours will be from 9 a.m. to 11 p.m. to satisfy prospective customers who have been besieging the building in the Shopping Center since opening activity began this week.

The cafeteria will be open seven days a week, announce its proprietors who also run the Dormitory Cafeteria.

Quota For Our Next War Loan Drive Is Set

The Fifth War Loan Drive opens in Marin City June 12, with the local quota set at $22,325.

This is 43 per cent higher than last year's quota, announces Al Babcock, CD coordinator and chairman of the campaign in Marin City.

The drive will be in force here and throughout the Nation until July 8.

Dr. Chabanoff At Center

Dr. Elizabeth Chabanoff of San Francisco is at the Medical Center, replacing Dr. Myrl Morris, who is ill. Dr. Morris, pediatrician, is expected back next week.

Patriotic Twins

The Charles Eade's twin daughters, Lorraine and Louise, celebrated their first birthday last week with the reception of two $25 War Bonds—a gift from their proud parents.

Unveiling the Honor Roll was Mrs. Nels Johnson, Marin City resident and mother of four sons in the service. One of Mrs. Johnsons' sons lies buried at Guadalcanal.

HONOR GUESTS

Honored guests of the occasion were official representatives of the various branches of the armed forces.

Speaking for the Army was Corporal Thomas Tharp, holder of the Purple Heart medal and eight times wounded veteran of the battles in North Africa and Sicily. Corporal Tharp warned his hearers to watch for apathy and an attitude that the rest of the war is easy. "The hardest part of the fighting is still ahead of us," he said.

Captain Louis W. Perkins, commander of the flagship of the first group of transports to go into Guadalcanal, spoke for the Coast Guard. Captain Perkins praised the record of Marinship workers and urged them to keep up the pace necessary for final victory.

Commander J. Ogden Hoffman, commandant of the Naval Net Depot at Tiburon, told his listeners that he had routed the first Marinship tanker on its voyage to the war zones. At the time he was stationed at San Pedro. Commander Hoffman, officially representing the Navy at the ceremony, also praised the tankers being turned out at Marinship.

MARINES

Sergeant Walter Mails spoke for the United States Marines. Sergeant Mails, former big league baseball player and well known Marin County resident, urged all present at the ceremony to back up their feelings by donating their blood for the war effort. He told how blood plasma at the battlefronts saved the very men of the armed forces whose names appeared on the Honor Roll.

Henry Iloff, former Marinship burner and now in the Merchant Marine, spoke for that part of the war effort. His family lives in Marin City.

Feature of the ceremony was the Fort Mason Army Band, under the direction of Warrant Officer Lewis Tilton. The band, one of the best known in the area, played many pieces. This is the band that plays for all transports leaving for the battlefronts.

Almost 1000 names are inscribed on the Honor Roll. Eight of those names have gold stars opposite them, signifying that they have given their lives in the service of their country.

Pronouncing the invocation at the ceremony was Dr. Norman W. Pendleton, pastor of the Marin City Community Church. Chairman was James San Jule, editor of The Marin Citizen.

Sponsors of the Honor Roll are the Marin City Council and The Marin Citizen.

Anniversary

Fireman Martin Contributes Rebuilt Car to Department

Fireman Herbert Martin last Tuesday celebrated a year's term of duty with the Marin City Fire Department, spending a few rare off-duty hours with his mother in Sausalito.

For Herbie and his chief, Rolf Bremer, there have been no holidays or days off for a long time. Two-handed, they've been running the department by eating, sleeping, and living in the dormitory there, while keeping a constant vigilance for the town's fire safety.

In his quiet way, Herbie is one of this community's first citizens. When time hung heavy on his hands during the long hours of watchfulness, he turned it to good account by the conversion of an old '34 Chevrolet into an addition to the department's rolling stock. READY

Now the car is a bright red, labeled "Fire Department," and ready to take off at a moment's notice to haul equipment to grass-fighters, or to pull the CD pump trailer in case of a conflagration along the bay.

The old vehicle's transformation into a modern fire-fighting addition finds it complete with the fire axe, foamite gun, hand fire extinguisher, spotlight, trailer connection, but, as yet—no siren.

All the work has been done right here in front of the fire station, where every day Herbie can still be seen tinkering with the car, adding improvements and subtracting faults.

FIRST TEST

The miniature fire-fighting truck had its first workout last month, when it dashed down to the bay with CD trailer in tow to pump out the water on a non-existent fire.

Reports come back that the initial experiment was a huge success.

Now that the car is in complete working condition, Herbie says "thanks" to all the back-seat suggestions offered by passers-by when the mechanical readjustments were being ironed out.

Jitterbug Teams Carry Off Cash Prizes At Dance

In front of a large and cheering audience at last Sunday's dance here, Eddie Murray of A61 and Elizabeth Woods of House 627 won first prize in the jitterbug contest staged from the dance floor. The handsome couple was awarded a $3 prize.

Second place went to jitterbugs Beverly Phillips, SC/2, and Lula B. Wallace of House 785 who were awarded $2 for their dancing skill.

Judges were Mrs. Louise Behrendt, J. E. Richards, Chas. Kingdon, Mr. and Mrs. Tom White.

The dance celebrated Sunday's Honor Roll dedication ceremony and was sponsored by the local Civilian Defense organization.

Circus Cake Goes To Toby's Party

Toby Allen celebrated his sixth birthday last Saturday with a party at his home. High point of the celebration was a huge circus cake, decorated and attended by a satisfactory quantity of ice cream.

His young guests were Georgia Lee Hobson, Carolyn Langland, Carol Jean Steinmetz, David and Bobby Del Terdici.

The hostess was his mother, Mrs. Daniel Allen, with colored animal crackers,

New System of Appointments Now At Center

An appointment system was inaugurated at the Medical Center this week, announces Head Nurse Iona Bellak.

Appointments with any of the Center's five doctors may now be made in person or by telephone.

The new system came into effect, after prolonged planning, for the convenience of patients and to facilitate prompt care.

In the past, Mondays and Fridays have borne the peak loads of patients at the local clinic. The appointment system will serve to redistribute patients throughout the week, enabling the doctors to see all persons promptly.

EMERGENCIES

"However," pointed out Nurse Bellak, "where medicine and human lives are involved, the unpredictable factor is a strong element, and emergency cases must always supersede routine visits here just as in any doctor's office."

"In the event that any patient must wait upon a doctor after his appointment time, it will be due to an emergency case which demands prompt medical care."

"Every resident of Marin City can appreciate such an occurrence and can understand delay by realizing that the emergency case may have been his own family or child," Nurse Bellak added.

QUICK CARE

Outside of possible emergency interruption, the new appointment service will serve to speed care at the Medical Center, through shifting the patient load equably over the entire week.

Patients may still see doctors at the Center without an appointment, although such cases must necessarily wait un-

Stork Brings Worries Which Medical Center Solves

By CARRIE E. PERCY

During the past month two Marin City families, the H. J. Buschmanns of House 136 and the Horace Spencers of House 381, who have new arrivals at their homes via "old Dr. Stork," have learned that prompt report to the Medical Center of their babies' arrivals saved them sizeable doctor and hospital bills.

The Buschmann baby developed erythro blastic anemia (an anemia of the new born) a few days after birth, while the mother was still in the hospital.

The attending obstetrician immediately called in a specialist. The father then reported to the Medical Center where he received clearance to that specialist which means California Physicians Service covered the specialist's fees, hospital fees for the baby after the mother went home, cost of blood tests, and furnished equipment for transfusions.

Mrs. G. W. Miller returned this week from a two months' visit with her daughter in Wichita, Kansas. While there, her son, Warren Ernest Whiteside, who is with the Armed Tank Division of the U. S. Army, was given a furlough which he spent with his mother and sister. Pvt. Whiteside leaves for overseas soon, reports his mother.

til the doctor's time is free from his scheduled visits.

The center is open for office visits every week day from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturdays, the center is open until noon. Evening consultations are possible on Monday, Thursday and Friday until 7 p.m.

The Center phone number is Sausalito 886.

Blood, as is usual, was furnished by the family.

Blood tests are being continued by the Medical Center staff and the child will be under observation by them as long as necessary.

SPENCERS' BABY

Pneumonia was detected in the Spencer baby while the mother was still at the hospital. The father contacted the Medical Center and received clearance to a pediatrician. CPS assumed responsibility for his fees as well as for X-rays and additional hospital charges.

In an interview this week, these parents were delighted to say how appreciative they are of the service and co-operation received from the staff of the local Medical Center, whereby the lives of the babies were saved.

GRATEFUL

Both mothers said they want everyone to know how much it means to be able to have this assistance when they already had a great deal of expense in connection with the birth of the babies.

Declared Mrs. Spencer, "We thought we didn't get much for what we paid, and then this happened. Now we realize how much it helps when expenses are already high to have this additional expense taken care of by CPS."

All About Midget Catcher By New Correspondent

By GLEN BISHOP

The Marin City Midgets were sadly disappointed when the game with Corte Madera was cancelled last Saturday. It was the fourth cancelled game of the season.

Last week we elected a new captain. He's Walter Dougherty, our catcher, and a good one. As far as I know, he began catching in Colorado Springs, Colorado. He joined our team last year, but was run out of the catching position by Gene Johnson, who joined the Juniors this year and is going into the Army soon.

Walter played third base the rest of last year. Now he's back at his catching. He is hitting pretty good and is turning into a bunting specialist. He is 11 years old and sure knows his stuff.

Last week, he bought himself some new baseball equipment, and is all set for a good playing season.

Stolen Automobile Returned to Meiers

The John Meier car, which was stolen from in front of their home last week, was discovered in a Hamilton Field parking lot last Saturday by the state highway patrol.

Meier, of House 78, reports the car was returned in good condition, minus only the car keys and a tank full of gasoline.

Christ Church to Hear Evangelist

The Church of Christ 11 a.m. service will be held this Sunday at House 489, with Evangelist Dale A. Williamson preaching on "If Christ Should Come to Marin City."

Bible school is at 10 a.m. The evening service is at 7 p.m. with the sermon subject, "Why I am Neither Catholic or Protestant." Everyone welcome.

Measles, Mumps Lead Diseases

Measles and mumps lead the list of prevalent diseases in Marin County this week. There are 37 cases of measles in the county and 20 cases of mumps.

Other cases of prevalent diseases during the week are chickenpox, 2; German measles, 2; scarlet fever, 1; syphilis, 3; tuberculosis, 1; whooping cough, 3.

The report was issued by the Marin County Health Department.

Sweet Worker

Mrs. Ray Bosley started to work at the local candy store last Wednesday.

Mrs. Ilona Bellak and son, David, visited relatives in Santa Cruz over the weekend.

Club Praises Program By Graduates

By JULIA HOBSON

Womens' Club members and a large number of guests were enthusiastic in their praise of the Eighth Grade Graduating Class which provided the main part of the evening's program Wednesday, June 7.

Nan Maycock gave a piano solo, "Spinning Song"; Stanley Wilker, violin solos, "Blue Danube Waltz" and "Bohemian March"; a chorus of girls sang Naples' "Neopolitan Folk Song" and "All Through the Night." They were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. R. Kahrt. The last number was a humorous poem "My Dog," by Eleanor Campbell.

Miss Dorothy Erthle, executive secretary of the Girl Scout organization, spoke on the Girl Scout program in Marin County, and the plan for leadership. After a brief business meeting several tables of card games were formed.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. W. N. Makaroff and her committee, who carried out the theme of the evening by arranging paper doll figures around a miniature school slate, for refreshment table decorations.

Among the guests were Dr. Charlotte Baer of the Marin City Medical Center staff, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Boyle. Mr. Boyle is Superintendent of Schools.

We regret the announcement made at the Womens' Club meeting that Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Smith are leaving Marin City this weekend. Mrs. Smith has been vice president of the club, and conducted Wednesday night's meeting in the absence of Mrs. B. C. Bloomquist, who is in Los Angeles on a short vacation.

Mrs. E. B. Matthews, recording secretary, also read her own letter of resignation. The Matthews are building a home in Chico, Calif., and she is no longer able to continue actively in the Club.

Mrs. George Hinnencamp announced that the Cookie Brigade will again bake cookies on the first Friday night after the first Wednesday of the month.

A pot-luck supper has been planned for members of the Womens' Club and their families, to be held Sunday, June 18, in the Lounge. If you plan to be there, please attend the Executive Board meeting in the Lounge Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, June 15. Arrangements for the supper will be made at that time.

Vics Really Meet This Tuesday

The next meeting of the Volunteers in Community Service is this Tuesday, June 13, in the lounge room of the Community House.

Last week's announcement of their meeting was all a big mistake, but four ladies showed up anyway. Mrs. Dan Allen came in to explain the error.

So that the evening would not be wasted, they all went over to the school to sew for the Red Cross.

Present were Mrs. P. Behndt, Mrs. P. Strombom, Mrs. R. Robertson, and Mrs. R. Waycott.

The verified meeting, coming this Tuesday, is open to all women in Marin City, who are cordially invited to come and see what community service the VICS will work on next.

Wilker, Donald Green, Harry Pense, Charles Abernathy, Elmer Christiansen and Bill Kuperus.

Mesdames Preston, Lindburg, Abbott, Green, Pense, Kuperus and Abernathy went to the serving at the Service Men's Club. Sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, and coffee were the order of the evening.

Three years ago his career seemed at a dead end. Then he joined Warners and made "Sergeant York," "The Adventures of Mark Twain," and "Rhapsody in Blue." Now his career is

Face to Face With Himself

How would you like to have your head amputated, painlessly, on the El Camino stage Friday night and then have it replaced? Francisco, famous spook entertainer, invites a member of the audience to enjoy this experience in his "Midnight Frolic," to play a midnight show, Friday, June 16th, 11:30 p.m.

again at a peak, which proves it's possible for a man to be successful 31 years in a cut-throat business and still retain the respect and affection of coworkers and the community.

Lasky in Alaska

But before he and his associates started putting Hollywood on the map Lasky had cut himself a slice of show business. It all started with a cornet he bought because he wanted to play in the San Jose boys' band. Lasky was 12.

Lasky's father died shortly before the turn of the century, leaving him the sole support of his mother and sister. When gold was discovered in Alaska in 1900 young Jesse joined the stampede.

The only gold he got his hands on was what more fortunate miners showered into the orchestra pit of the cheap theater where he got a job as cornet player.

When he got back to San Francisco he discovered his little sister had grown up and could play the cornet too. The two started doing duets, and in short order Lasky had his first vaudeville act worked out.

From performing he turned to staging acts. Soon he was in the big time and making his first fortune. It didn't take him long to lose it.

A Super-Dud

The Follies Bergere of New York turned that trick. Lasky planned it as a super-show to give New Yorkers a chance to watch a lavish musical show while being wined and dined. The public stayed away. It cost him $110,000, his total fortune.

A California mission sign-board gave him the idea for an operetta called "California." Lasky got Cecil De Mille to write it. That was the beginning of an historic association.

"California" was a hit. So were Lasky-De Mille musicals. The ex-cornetist was riding high again—and becoming restless.

The Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play company was the result of that restlessness. De Mille and Samuel Goldwyn, another young fellow beginning to edge into the show business, were Lasky's partners. The new enterprise was to make motion pictures.

"The Squaw Man," their first, was a great hit. Adolph Zukor, head of Famous Players, wired Lasky his congratulations.

The two rivals joined forces. In July of 1916 their companies became Famous Players-Lasky. Great names made great pictures.

'Lives of Great Men'

The great depression claimed Jesse Lasky as one of its victims. His fortune gone, Lasky resigned from Paramount in 1932.

It was a twilight of the Titan, but since that he'd found more pictures he wanted to produce. Pictures that would tell in personal histories the true story of this country, where poor boys become famed immortals.

Warners shared his belief in that type of yarn, so Lasky joined them, and his first was "Sergeant York," a tale of a Tennessee farmer who became a great war hero; then "The Adventures of Mark Twain," a river pilot's rise to literary fame, and "Rhapsody in Blue," the life of the late George Gershwin, the east side lad whose music will live forever.

And how about the story of the tootin' cornet player called Jesse Lasky—or has he, in tooting the other fellow's horn, forgotten how to toot his own?

Never Say Die

Gloria Swanson plans more summer stock. She hasn't been on the screen for ages, yet her name has more drawing power than many top Broadway stars. The fans don't forget, but producers do. . . . If Betty Grable has her way, she'll do lots of traveling with Harry James. She's in the same mood as Alice Faye. They don't want to make another picture until late fall. They're both happily married, want to stay so. They like to enjoy their babies.

The longing for fraternity can never be satisfied but under the sway of a common Father.—Benjamin Disraeli.

Dear Son

A Mother Writes to Her Boy As Invasion Strikes

As with many another American mother, D Day to Mrs. Emma Flynn brought a fierce pride in her son made poignant by her memories of him.

And the poem she has written to her son in the Marines echoes in mothers' hearts all over the world this week.

Addressed "Dear Son", the lines are:

You realized your wildest dreams
On the day you joined the ranks of our Marines.
And your mother's memory strays the long years through
Back to the days your boots were baby blue.

My baby boy! So chubby then and sweet
From your head down to your dimpled feet.
Those golden days for me have flown too fast
And my baby boy has vanished in the past.

On down the years my memories drift along.
My dear, I'll be so lonesome while you're gone,
For you have grown to be my pride and joy
Like any other mother's darling boy.

And the wind up in the cherry tree will moan
Until the magic hour our boys come home.

In part, these are the verses which Mrs. Flynn sends this week to her son, Lynn Thompson of the U. S. Marines.

But while she is waiting for his return, Mrs. Flynn does not sit idly by. Besides caring for her two little girls at home, she is a welder at Marinship on the graveyard shift.

Teeners Chalk Up Notable City Services

Teeners are not always on the "gimme" side of the ledger.

In the past few months the Teeners have contributed $15 to the American Red Cross, $30 to the Airplane Club, $15 to the Junior Herald, the official organ of the Teener Council. They also gave $50 to the Marin City Baseball team, coached by Jess Draper. It pleases the Teeners that the City Council has followed in their footsteps and advanced the money for uniforms.

There will be no orchestra at the Friday night dance as announced last week as the time was too short to engage a good one. There will be an orchestra at the dance June 30th. No dance June 16th, due to the school graduation.

The Teeners are sorry to have their director, Lloyd Messersmith, leave but wish him every success in his new work.

In the past service men have been admitted to Teener dances regardless of age. The Teener Council voted at the regular meeting Tuesday night that service men attending the dances must be of Teen age.

Mrs. Henry Armeda of Casa Grande, Arizona, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Jean Thomas, in Marin City. Mrs. Thomas has been employed at the Marin City market and is the sister of Mrs. S. W. Frisby. Mrs. Thomas and her daughter left Tuesday for Bell, Calif., where they will visit the Frisbys, former Marin City residents. After the trip, she will return to her home in Bremerton, Washington.

Races of Mankind Freedom From Fear Will Cure All Racial Prejudice

INTELLIGENCE COMPARED

The most careful investigations of intelligence have been made in America among Negroes and whites. The scientist realizes that every time he measures intelligence in any man, black or white, his results show the intelligence that man was born with plus what happened to him since he was born.

The scientist has a lot of proof of this. For instance, in the first World War, intelligence tests were given to the American Expeditionary Forces; they showed that Negroes made a lower score on intelligence tests than whites. But the tests also showed that Northerners, black and white, had higher scores than Southerners, black and white.

Everyone knows that Southerners are inborn equals of Northerners, but in 1917 many southern states' per capita expenditures for schools were only fractions of those in northern states, and housing and diet and income were far below average too.

Since the vast majority of Negroes lived in the south, their score on the intelligence test was a score they got not only as Negroes, but as Americans who had grown up under poor conditions in the south. Scientists therefore compared the scores of Southern whites and Northern Negroes.

Negroes, with better luck after they were born, got higher scores than whites with less luck. The white race did badly where economic conditions were bad and schooling was not provided, and Negroes living under better conditions surpassed them.

The difference did not arise because people were from the north or the south, or because they were white or black, but because of differences in income, education, cultural advantages, and other opportunities.

CHARACTER NOT INBORN

The second superiority which a man claims when he says, "I was born a member of a superior race," is that his race has better character. The Nazis boast of their racial soul. But when they wanted to make a whole new generation into Nazis they didn't trust to "racial soul"; they made certain kinds of teaching compulsory in the schools, they broke up homes where the parents were anti-Nazi, they required boys to join certain Nazi youth organizations. By these means they got the kind of national character they wanted. But it was a planned and deliberately trained character, not an inborn "racial soul."

In just the same way the Japanese have bred a generation of ruthless fighters. Fifty years ago Europeans who lived in Japan used to describe them as "butterflies flitting from flower to flower," incapable of "the stern drives" of western civilization. Since 1900 the "butterflies" have fought six times overseas, and they are desperate and ruthless fighters.

In a generation the butterflies have become game cocks. But their race has not changed. The same blood still flows in their veins. But spiritually they are more like the Germans than they are like their racial brothers, the peace-loving Chinese.

Americans deny that the Nazis have produced a national character superior to that of Goethe's and Schiller's days, and that the ruthless Japanese of today are finer human beings than in those generations when they preferred to write poetry and paint pictures. Race prejudice is, after all, a determination to keep a people down, and it misuses the label "inferior" to justify unfairness and injustice. Race prejudice makes people ruthless; it invites violence. It is the opposite of "good character" as it is defined in the Christian religion—or in the Confucian religion, or in the Buddhist religion, or in the Hindu religion, for that matter.

CIVILIZATION NOT CAUSED BY RACE

History proves that progress in civilization is not the monopoly of one race or sub race. When our white forebears in Europe were rude stone-age primitives, the civilizations of the Babylonians and the Egyptians had already flourished and been eclipsed. There were great Negro states in Africa when Europe was a sparsely settled forest. Negroes made iron tools and wove fine cloth for their clothing when fair-skinned Europeans wore skins and knew nothing of iron.

When Europe was just emerging from the Middle Ages, Marco Polo visited China and found there a great civilization, the like of which he had never imagined. Europe was a frontier country in those days compared with China.

All races have made their contributions to human knowledge. Those who have lived at the crossroads of the world have invented most; those who have lived isolated on islands or at the tip ends of continents have been content to earn their livelihoods by the old traditional methods. There was, for them, no "necessity" to be the "mother of inventions" after they had devised a way to live on the land.

Peoples who came in contact with strangers, however, gave what arts of life they had and took what the strangers had. These contributions to civilization accumulated over the centuries and on this accumulation new discoveries are based. We are all the gainers.

The United States is the greatest cross roads of the world in all history. People have come here from every race and nation and almost every race in the world is represented among our citizens.

Industry in the United States has taken the hand skills of our immigrants and made machines to do the work. Without their skills we should not have known how. Our music, our buildings have developed from patterns brought to our shores or learned from every quarter of the world.

Our country would be poorer in every phase of its culture if different cultures had not come together here, sharing and learning the special contributions each had to offer.

M-16 SALUTE TO THE SECOND FRONT.

Back The Invasion

Today thousands of American boys are hurling themselves against Hitler's "impregnable Europe," ready and willing to sacrifice their lives so that we at home may some day live in peace and security.

Many of those boys—undoubtedly some of them from Marin City—will fail to return home. They will give their ALL, fighting on, ending their service to their nation and to us in a shallow grave in France.

Knowing this, realizing that many of our boys will pay the supreme price for the preservation of our way of life, we at home are prompted immediately to ponder just what WE can do in this perilous hour.

WE CAN do something—we can provide the weapons and tools and medical aid and ships which our men will so desperately need in the months to come.

But we must do more than produce these vitally required supplies; we must provide the MONEY for their production. And we can do that by investing, now, every possible dollar of savings and excess earnings in United States War Bonds.

Young men—American men—are dying at this moment so that we may continue to enjoy our precious freedom.

Can there be among us, here, any who fail to do their utmost in backing them up?

THE SOAP BOX

By THE EDITOR

We are writing this at one of the most historic moments of the world's history.

Last Sunday, the day we dedicated our Marin City Honor Roll, came the announcement that American troops were entering Rome. On Tuesday came the electrifying report from General Eisenhower that the second front in Europe had been opened on the beaches of France.

NUTCRACKER

Now begins the nutcracker operation which will crush Nazism and all it stands for. Now begins in earnest that coalition warfare which we have been waiting for for so many months. American and other United Nations troops are making a grand assault on the European continent, United Nations troops are pursuing the Nazis beyond Rome, Tito and the Yugoslav guerrillas are engaging almost a score of Nazi divisions along the Adriatic and the Red Army of the Soviet Union, 300 divisions strong, is poised for a tremendous offensive from the east.

The rats have been cornered. Blows are being rained on their heads from many directions. The issue is no longer in doubt. Victory will be ours.

But we can delay that victory. We can prolong the war by many months, or even years.

CAN DELAY WAR

If we fail to buy enough bonds it will delay the war. If we fail to stamp out racial prejudice and other un-American forms of disunity it will prolong the war. If we allow our emotions to overcome our good sense and fail to keep up our production of ships every day in the week, every hour of the day, it will delay victory.

It is up to us now—ALL OF US. We have not yet felt the fury of the war as the people of other nations have. We have not known the terror and anguish of the brave Russian and Chinese people. We have not undergone the blitz bombing endured by the British people. None of us can even imagine the horror undergone by the peoples of the occupied countries. The war for most of us has been pretty soft.

TOGETHER

Now we're in it with the other freedom loving peoples of the world. Now we're a part of the total and all-out war which is going to be necessary to crush the forces of darkness and oppression. Now the entire American people are facing the test which our Allied brothers have met and won. NOW IT'S UP TO US!

On Monday the Fifth War Loan drive starts. Most of us have already bought many bonds. It has not been enough. Every wage earner in the country must buy at least another $100 War Bond during the course of the Fifth War Loan drive if our men at the invasion beachheads are to get the support they need.

UP TO US

It's up to us now. We're part of the invasion and the home front and the battle fronts are one. We can't let them down!
